

MindSweep 2025

Part I – Arts, Food and Beverages, Movies and TV, Literature

PLEASE OPEN THIS BOOKLET ONLY WHEN YOUR PROCTOR SAYS “START”.

PLEASE FAMILIARISE YOURSELF WITH THESE DETAILS BEFORE THE START.

This BOOKLET contains 100 questions, divided into 4 topics. It comprises Part I of the contest. Your cumulative score across the eight topics will determine your ranking.

Rules:

- You have 60 minutes to answer as many of these questions as possible.
- Papers will be swapped with another player for marking at the end of 60 minutes.
- Unless stated in the question, last names will suffice. However, if you give the wrong first name, your answer will be incorrect!
- Phonetically correct answers will be accepted.
- After the four topics have been marked, you will get your paper back and you have 5 minutes to check you agree with the marking. Disputes must be referred to the coordinator in this time. Please indicate which answer(s) you are querying with a large “?” question mark.
- At the end of marking, your checker should copy your scores into the table on this sheet. If you agree with their marking, sign next to the score(s) to confirm this. Your complete script should then be handed in (it will be returned to you later). Once this has been done, no further discussions will be entered into about your score. The score signed for will be considered to be correct.
- The overall highest scoring player from all participating venues will be the KQA MindSweep Champion 2025.
- In the event of a tie, your lowest scores will be compared and the person with a higher score there will win.
- In the event of any unprecedented occurrence or unforeseen circumstances arising in the course of the quiz, your proctor’s decision shall be final and binding. KQA will adjudicate if the proctor refers the matter to us.
- Your commencing to answer the questions indicates your acceptance of these rules.

Thank you.

This Quiz is set by Arul Mani, Nagaratna Patil, Nikhita Thomas, Pranav VS, Urmila Lakshmanan, and Venkataraman Ravindra

Name: Category:
#	Topic	Marks
1	Arts
2	Food and Beverages
3	Movies and TV
4	Literature		Sign here:
	Total

1	A Mad Magazine strip from August 1970 has a character named Prissy Percy being tortured by a bunch of sporty American boys. He is revealed to be X in the final panel. Art historian Valerie Hedquist calls this the ____'s first public outing. Which iconic character/ painting are we referring to?		<input type="checkbox"/>
2	The sky and the cloak worn by Mary Magdalene in Pieter van der Werff's 1709 work The Entombment of Christ have attracted the curiosity of those interested in art history for a long time. Why?		<input type="checkbox"/>
3	Jose Delarra created this memorial to X in the city of Santa Clara, the site of his most significant military victory. When his body was exhumed in 1997, it was buried at this memorial, and then a giant statue of X, with an asthma inhaler in his pocket, while he points to South America was then erected at this site. Name X.		<input type="checkbox"/>
4	The original ingredients were wet and dry straw but nowadays, to ensure there is no ambiguity in the display, two distinct combinations are used. One contains anthracene, sulphur and potassium perchlorate, while the other contains potassium chlorate, lactose and Greek pitch. What display , seen thrice so far in this century?		<input type="checkbox"/>
5	Which celebrity's image did Andy Warhol use the most in his artwork?		<input type="checkbox"/>
6	English artist Constance Fox Talbot is credited as the first woman to do what?		<input type="checkbox"/>
7	The designs on the Bayeux Tapestry are _____ rather than in a tapestry weave and as such, do not actually meet the specific definitions of a tapestry. Despite this, the piece has always been referred to as a tapestry until recent years when another name has gained ground among certain art historians. Either fill in the blank or give the alternative name.		<input type="checkbox"/>
8	A painting of __X__, an artist himself, by William Dargie won the Archibald Prize in 1956, the first painting of an Aboriginal person to win the prize. Sixty-four years later, his great grandson became the first Indigenous artist to win the prize for his work "Stand strong for who you are". What is their shared surname?		<input type="checkbox"/>
9	_____, forever ten-years-old, hedgehog haired, with raggedy cloths and bare feet, began standing with his back to the readers since 1973, after the Yom Kippur war. Created by the cartoonist Naji al-Ali in 1969, the boy takes his name from a bitter plant that grows in the Middle East that has deep roots and grows back even when weeded out. ID this symbol of Palestinian struggle.		<input type="checkbox"/>
10	This block-printing technique is practiced in ____-pur of India's Kutch district as well as in Sindh, Pakistan. As to its name, one story goes that a king was so fond of his uniquely printed bedspread that he told his maid not to change the sheets - "aaj ke din rak." Some believe the name to be a borrowing of the Arabic word for blue due to the popular use of indigo in the process. What textile print?		<input type="checkbox"/>
11	Images used in this diptych was taken from the promotional photographs for the film Niagara (1953). A silk-screen process was then used to create the painting which consists of 50 images: 25 on the left in colour and 25 on the right in black and white. ID the painting , which was completed weeks after its subject's death in August 1962.		<input type="checkbox"/>
12	English painter Vanessa Bell's home on Gordon Square, London was often the meeting spot for a radical bunch of intellectuals and writers. While not as famous as her younger sister, you may have spotted her designs on the book jackets of a publishing house begun by said sister and her husband. Name the publishing house.		<input type="checkbox"/>
13	The artist Cy Gavin was apparently inspired by this spring perennial blooming outside his New York studio and the myth surrounding its scientific name. "I became interested in that moment of self-recognition and appreciation when _____ sees his reflection for the first time in the pool of water." What was the result of Gavin's inspiration?		<input type="checkbox"/>

14	This painting technique comes from the Italian meaning “to evaporate” and “smoke”, named so because of how it blends one tone into another so it leaves no sign of any brush strokes. What technique? OR give me its most famous practitioner.		<input type="checkbox"/>
15	“At an oil painting Phil Resch halted, gazed intently. The painting showed a hairless, oppressed creature with a head like an inverted pear, its hands clapped in horror to its ears, its mouth open” ID the painting OR the sci-fi classic.		<input type="checkbox"/>
16	During the early 20th century, the French colonisation of Sub-Saharan Africa exposed artworks from those regions to Europe. In 1907, when he was viewing one of them at Palais du Trocadéro he apparently experienced a ‘revelation’ which is argued to have inspired his signature style. Who?		<input type="checkbox"/>
17	Botanical patterns like 'Rose' and 'Willow' and "Strawberry thief" created by this British designer are seen everywhere these days- from mobile phone cases to sports shoes to movies and TV shows from the 20th and 21st centuries. Name this 19th century visionary who championed hand craftsmanship during a time in British history when industrial mass-production was at its peak.		<input type="checkbox"/>
18	Starting in the mid-1830s and continuing for more than 20 years, Hiroshige designed 600 to 1000 uchiwa, far more than any other artist. Since summer pleasure-seekers took the refreshing evening air in these locations, Hiroshige particularly featured bodies of gently flowing water in his uchiwa designs. As they were held close to the heart, Hiroshige's uchiwa prints may have instilled a feeling of personal connection with him. What is an uchiwa?		<input type="checkbox"/>
19	In the 1810s, Hokusai produced 'picture manuals', commercially printed drawing manuals full of pictures to copy. The most famous of these, was Hokusai _____ in 15 volumes. The preface to volume one indicates that Hokusai himself suggested this title, a still unusual use of the word _____, which can be translated as 'brush running away with itself'. Fill in both blanks with the same word.		<input type="checkbox"/>
20	The writing on the Rosetta Stone is a decree about the king Ptolemy V. The decree is bilingual and is inscribed in three scripts. Ancient Greek and Egyptian hieroglyphs were two of the scripts used. Name the third script- it was the cursive Egyptian script used for daily purposes, meaning 'language of the people'.		<input type="checkbox"/>
21	The town does not exist / except where one black-haired tree slips up like a drowned woman into the hot sky. The town is silent... Even the moon bulges in its orange irons... These lines, from an ekphrastic poem by Anne Sexton, are about which artwork?		<input type="checkbox"/>
22	Monet's Charing Cross Bridge , until its cleaning in 2024, captured the smoggy yellow haze over the Thames with the shadowy Houses of Parliament in the backdrop. However, it turned out that some of that cloudiness was not Claude's handiwork—it came, in part, from the lingering smoke of its previous owner's cigars. Who was the owner , an artist in his own right?		<input type="checkbox"/>
23	In 2024, the Shanghai Museum hosted a special ten-night series dubbed “Meowseum Nights,” where visitors were allowed to bring their cats to a particular exhibit. The exhibit was cat-proofed, ensuring artifacts were behind glass. What was the theme of the exhibit?		<input type="checkbox"/>
24	After being blacklisted in a nearly decade-long feud, artist Stuart Semple legally changed his name in 2024 to that of his rival, in a cheeky protest to get his hands on a 2014 product developed by Surrey NanoSystems. What name did he adopt? Full name required.		<input type="checkbox"/>
25	In which painting does the word parsin , from the Hebrew " Mene, mene, tekel, parsin ," appear misspelled as u-pharsin , due to a scribal error in the Bible edition the artist got from his friend when he was living in the Jewish Quarter of Amsterdam?		<input type="checkbox"/>

1	This fish variety takes its name from the Latin for spotted, and in combination with the word holy is used as a minced oath in English that may also refer to the fact that it was sold on Sundays to ensure quick consumption before the flesh rotted. ID.		<input type="checkbox"/>
2	The street origins of this Japanese item are visible in the name--it means branch, and was cooked this way to allow people to pick edible matter off while standing or walking. Give us a 7-letter word.		<input type="checkbox"/>
3	Originally a Greek dessert, this flatbread served with bay leaves and honey is better known to us today because the name has travelled as a sight metaphor into the language of maternity and medical sciences. What 8-letter word?		<input type="checkbox"/>
4	LG scored a win in the 1980s by marketing the GR-063 as a top-loader secondary kitchen appliance to Korean households. The basic Western design was not conducive for a certain purpose and hence the redesign. This has now developed in several ways, with recent models stressing their receptivity to specific kinds of bacteria. What did LG rejig/what did they create thus?		<input type="checkbox"/>
5	There are about 115 known nopales species native to Mexico, most of them edible. The pads can be eaten raw or cooked, used in marmalades, soups, stews, salad, tacos and more. What is the commonly used name for them in English?		<input type="checkbox"/>
6	A unique egg preparation found in Japan involves slow cooking the egg within its shell in the water of a hot spring for about 30-40 minutes. It shares its name with the Japanese term for 'hot spring'. What is it called?		<input type="checkbox"/>
7	In the UK, it is used for a baked bar made with rolled oats, butter, golden syrup, and brown sugar. In the US it is often used to refer to a pancake. What term?		<input type="checkbox"/>
8	Which alcoholic beverage shares the root of its name with a Sanskrit word for 'honey'?		<input type="checkbox"/>
9	Unlike its American counterpart, this red-capped Japanese condiment brand is made solely of egg-yolks with a blend of vinegar varieties, a pinch of salt, and MSG. The brand borrows its name and logo from the American cartoonist Rose O'Neil's adorable cherub-like creation for Ladies' Home Journal . Name the Japanese brand.		<input type="checkbox"/>
10	In 2000, Unilever bought this American ice cream company while allowing them the autonomy of championing social causes. This understanding soured in 2021 when the company announced that it would stop selling products in Israel's illegal settlements in occupied Palestinian territories. In March this year, the company CEO Dave Stever was removed from his position over their political activism. ID the company , originally meant to be a bagel-making venture.		<input type="checkbox"/>
11	While X is a type of Y, not every type of Y is X. To be considered as X, the Y must come specifically from a fish of the Acipenseridae family known as sturgeon and undergo a process of salt-curing. Y on the other hand is simply ripe and unfertilized and can be collected from any marine animal. What are X and Y?		<input type="checkbox"/>
12	_____ are named so because of their calabash-like appearance; traditionally made with fruits of the Chinese hawthorn coated in malt sugar on a Bamboo skewer. Sometimes the pit and seeds of the hawthorn were pulled out and the fruit filled with sweet red bean paste before the skewering and dipping. FITB.		<input type="checkbox"/>
13	A dish known as Suodiu (Suck and discard) has been making rounds in Chinese Tiktok. This traditional dish dates back hundreds of years when boatmen from Yangtze River were forced to turn to natural minerals when they ran out of vegetables and meat. What's the main ingredient of Suodiu?		<input type="checkbox"/>
14	This group of Baleen whales got their name from the fact that they were big, slow, floated up when killed, and even swam towards boats out of curiosity. What tragically "appropriate" name?		<input type="checkbox"/>

15	This sweet dish was featured in Ms Beeton's Book of Household Management as _____ jam pudding. The blanks fit a cute rhyme-y name, but it's also known by other, less appetising names like 'shirt sleeve pudding' because it was steamed and served often in old shirt sleeves, which also led to morbid nicknames like 'dead man's arm' and 'dead man's leg'. FITB.		<input type="checkbox"/>
16	What derogatory term did American sailors coin to refer to British sailors because they carried citrus juice on board to avoid scurvy?		<input type="checkbox"/>
17	The FAO's One Country One Priority Product initiative helps countries identify the products that have the most market potential and provides support in maximising it. For Bangladesh, the choice is their national fruit; even though it is the world's second-largest producer of the fruit after India, much of its potential remained untapped. Which 'multiple' fruit that gets its english name from an Indian language?		<input type="checkbox"/>
18	As an embroidery stitch it means a series of single, or detached, chain stitches formed around a center point. It also describes an easy-to-make cake that is essentially a hot milk sponge cake that is topped with a broiled frosting. What two-word rhyming term?		<input type="checkbox"/>
19	Garlic _____ are generally sold by the bunch and make a stellar addition to pesto, soups, stir-fries, and more. They are stalks that extend from the base of hardneck garlic plants; they are related to but are different from green garlic. Fill in the blank with the plural of a noun, which when prefixed with other nouns describes specified types of scenery.		<input type="checkbox"/>
20	In 2019, the Russian government claimed this vivid soup was one of their most famous and beloved dishes. One Ukrainian response read: "You stole the Crimea and now you try to steal this!" In 2020, Ukraine's government lobbied the Michelin restaurant guide to remove a reference to this soup from its first-ever writeup of Moscow's restaurant scene. Name this dish that stars a root vegetable- a consonant soup with just one vowel in it?		<input type="checkbox"/>
21	The MTR restaurant near Lalbagh botanical garden in Bangalore started serving its signature dessert "Chandrahara" in the 1950s. Made from a pastry dough, the deep-fried pillowy sweet that is served with a khoa-based sauce, got its current name from a 1954 movie. Before that it was called '_____ sweet'. Fill in the blank with the demonym of a European country , that had a connection with the patron of the nearby garden in the 18th century.		<input type="checkbox"/>
22	Which invention that helped liberate many women from spending two-three hours on a daily chore, came about when Yoshitada Minami tried to recreate the traditional process described in the proverb " hajime choro choro, naka pappa, akago ga naitemo futa toruna ", meaning "start with a low flame, raise the heat in the middle, and never lift the lid even if the baby cries"?		<input type="checkbox"/>
23	Which Arab dessert is referenced as a pun in the name of the viral FIX chocolate bar Can't Get _____ of It? The chocolate made with filo pastry, pistachio, and tahini, is now widely known as "Dubai chocolate".		<input type="checkbox"/>
24	King Pomare V of Tahiti died a week after Gauguin's arrival there. Pomare had drunk himself to death just like his great grandfather, grandfather and father before him had done. His favourite drink had a mix of rum, whiskey, brandy, and importantly liqueur. He was buried in a tomb topped with a large replica of a distinctively shaped bottle of which French brand?		<input type="checkbox"/>
25	The 2001 book The Botany of Desire by Michael Pollan explores how human desires shape the cultivation of plants. Each of its four parts pairs a plant with a desire: the _____ with sweetness, the _____ with beauty, _____ with intoxication, and the _____ with control. Name any of the four.		<input type="checkbox"/>

1	This mixed-race actor's first big screen moment was as a dog enthusiast in Guy Ritchie's Snatch , which eventually led to roles in Gangs of New York and a chance to play Al Capone in Boardwalk Empire . Identify the actor , most recently seen as a gutted father in a 2025 TV show.		<input type="checkbox"/>
2	South Brooklyn is three neighbourhoods: Sheepshead Bay, Coney Island and X, which recently got namechecked in an acceptance speech. Name this location or the film which looked at an immigrant community that has made its home here.		<input type="checkbox"/>
3	The hero of Dashiell Hammett's Red Harvest speaks the words 'This damned burg's getting me. If I don't get away soon I'll be going blood-simple like the natives. Whose cinematic debut takes its title from these lines?		<input type="checkbox"/>
4	Whose cinematic swansong takes its at-home title from the question in Genzaburo Yoshino's 1937 novel about a young boy discovering the world? Name either director or this title.		<input type="checkbox"/>
5	Taylor Sheridan originally wrote which series as a film, pitching it as "The Godfather in Montana"?		<input type="checkbox"/>
6	Set to be released in November, 2025, Yorgos Lanthimos' English-language remake of the 2003 Korean science fiction comedy Save the Green Planet! is named after an ancient Mediterranean ritual based on the belief that bees were spontaneously generated from a cow's carcass. What is the name?		<input type="checkbox"/>
7	One of the writers noted that the 2016 episode of "Who Do You Think You Are?", where EastEnders actor Danny Dyer discovered he was related to Edward III of England, inspired the idea for the protagonist of their show. Which show?		<input type="checkbox"/>
8	Which fictional Saturday Night Live character lends her name to slang phrase used to describe a pessimistic person who frequently adds bad news and negative feelings to a gathering, ultimately dampening the mood?		<input type="checkbox"/>
9	The Dot and the Line: A Romance in Lower Mathematics is a 1965 animated short-film about a line that tries to woo a dot that he is hopelessly in love with. The moral presented on screen at the end of the film is a pun on phrase that has its origins in politics - To the _____ belongs the _____. What punning moral?		<input type="checkbox"/>
10	The actor is regularly described in media as an "honorary Irishwoman." It began with a bit she did in an interview with Letterboxd, where she joked about having lived in Ireland for four months to prepare for her role as "Jenny the Donkey" in The Banshees of Inisherin . Which actor , who in her acceptance speech at the Critics Choice Awards (2024) thanked family in "Boston, Barbados, Nigeria, and Ireland."		<input type="checkbox"/>
11	While the yellow sneakers with black stripes sported by Uma Thurman in Kill Bill are _____ Taichi, the most popular model is the Mexico 66, released two years before 1968 Olympics in Mexico City. Bruce Lee too is credited with popularising this shoe brand. The second half of the brand name is because the stripes on these sneakers resemble those on a large cat. ID the Japanese brand.		<input type="checkbox"/>
12	Howard Dietz chose the company's mascot as homage to his alma mater Columbia University. Slats, Jackie, Bill, Telly, Coffee, Tanner, George, and Leo are some who have graced the role of the mascot. Unlike the rest, Slats was the sole inaudible one, only looking around in the logo. What is being described here?		<input type="checkbox"/>
13	Lars Von Trier wrote a script while hospitalised for clinical depression, the result was 'Anti Christ', which shocked and awed people at its premier at Cannes, 2009. Two versions then became available at the Cannes film market, one with cuts and one without, appropriately nicknamed _____ and _____ versions. FITB.		<input type="checkbox"/>

14	In April 2025, this actor's new YouTube channel posted a BTS video of him auditioning for a role in a film he produced. The video was met with relief and gratitude for the actor not taking up the role as he didn't really come off as a village cop. Which film are we talking about?		<input type="checkbox"/>
15	Despite poor reviews by critics, this movie emerged as the highest Tamil grosser of 2025. It is the second movie in this actor's career to have an English title — this one supposedly pays homage to a 1966 Italian classic. ID.		<input type="checkbox"/>
16	When reading a column in Spy magazine, the title "_____ " caught this director's eye. When his screenwriting partner was asked what his next film was about, he said, "I guess it's about a bunch of criminals who meet in a police line up". Origin story of which film?		<input type="checkbox"/>
17	In April 2025 The Economist published a list of six of the best films about financial turmoil. Of the six, only one was from the 20th century- a 1940 film about a family who head to California to make a better life when they are kicked off their land in Oklahoma during the Great Depression. "If the novel is a masterpiece, the film is better". Name the film starring Henry Ford.		<input type="checkbox"/>
18	Homer Simpson first chomped down this blush pink frosted confectionary snack in 1989. It became a cultural icon reproduced on T-shirts and other merchandise; at last, in 2018 Krispy Kreme introduced the edible version. What is the punny name of the snack- it has six letters, with a punctuation mark after the first.		<input type="checkbox"/>
19	In August 2024 Timeout published their list of the 100 best Bollywood films. In the top ten, only two films are from post-liberalisation India. One of these two is ranked 4th best; name this film that was quoted from/ mentioned by two consecutive US presidents when they visited India?		<input type="checkbox"/>
20	Starting in 1993, this TV show that ran for 11 seasons broke the mold in that the female lead was rooted in science, while the male lead was not. As per a 2018 survey by the Geena Davis Institute of Gender in Media, the show's impact has been so big that the rise in women in science is often called 'The _____ Effect'. Fill in the blank with the surname of the female lead.		<input type="checkbox"/>
21	In his book about the making of a movie, author Mark Seal writes, " It was the essence of everything... the families, and the food, always the food, and the extremes to which men had to go to put that food on the table. It was about the X, yes, but it was more about the Y. It was about the statue in the distance... " Which line from the movie is he referring to, which is also the title of the book?		<input type="checkbox"/>
22	Which structure , home to "South Asian merchants, African entrepreneurs, Indian workers, asylum seekers, and penurious travelers from across the globe", is the subject of Gordon Mathews' book Ghetto at the Center of the World ? It was featured prominently and was referred to in the title of a 1994 movie.		<input type="checkbox"/>
23	Anora became the fourth film to win both the Oscar for Best Picture and the Palme d'Or at Cannes. The one before this was when Parasite won. Name any of the other two.		<input type="checkbox"/>
24	Inside No. 9 is a British black comedy anthology TV show written and created by Steve Pemberton and Reece Shearsmith. All the 55 episodes are linked only by a setting related to the number 9 in some way. Which movie does the title refer to, in which the main actions take place at Number 9 Thornton Square?		<input type="checkbox"/>
25	Who was one half of the comic duo Two Beats? The other went on to be known as Beat Kiyoshi.		<input type="checkbox"/>

1	In 1975, he wrote an appreciation of Gustave Flaubert's technique titled The Perpetual Orgy . He had also borrowed Flaubert's idea of the novelist as a god-killer in a study of Gabriel Garcia Marquez titled The History of a Deicide . Name this Nobel laureate.		<input type="checkbox"/>
2	This heavy-set pipesmoking crime-solver who appears in more than 70 books has been played on screen by Pierre Renoir, Charles Laughton, Albert Prejean and Gerard Depardieu. Name either the character or the creator.		<input type="checkbox"/>
3	Sweden gives out a 5 million krona award for children's literature annually that is named after a celebrated writer from that country. Just name this writer.		<input type="checkbox"/>
4	He wrote a good part of the epic that made his reputation while serving as a Superintendent for the Dead and Missing at Macau in the 1560s. Name him or the work.		<input type="checkbox"/>
5	This poetic form that relies on strategic repetition has a name that comes from its original rural themes. It is also the nickname given to the fictional character Oxana Vorontsova. What is this 10-letter word?		<input type="checkbox"/>
6	Basketball legend Kareem Abdul-Jabbar has written three novels with Anna Waterhouse about a secondary character that was created by another author. Talking about it, he said, "I wanted him to be the opposite of what's implied about him in the stories, that he's a brilliant but bloated, officious bureaucrat. Remember, it's X who describes him and X is not always a reliable source." Which secondary character?		<input type="checkbox"/>
7	Suzi Ronson, a 21-year-old hairdresser at a salon in Beckenham, London, was introduced by her customer – Mrs Jones – to her "artistic" son's wife, and through her to the "artistic" son in 1971. The iconic haircut she gave him propelled her into his world, and her 2024 memoir, Me and Mr Jones , talks about all that happened after. Who was Mr Jones?		<input type="checkbox"/>
8	Travels with Charley: In Search of America is a 1962 travelogue written by American author John Steinbeck. It depicts a 1960 road trip around the United States made by Steinbeck, in the company of his standard poodle Charley, in a specially made camper he named after Don Quixote's horse. What was the horse's name?		<input type="checkbox"/>
9	The Five Books of the Lives and Deeds of X and Pantagruel is a pentalogy of novels written by François Rabelais about the adventures of two giants, X and his son. What word in English comes from X's name?		<input type="checkbox"/>
10	A WWI coinage, this word became popular through a children's book titled _____: A Royal Air Force Story by X. A small creature blamed for mechanical issues in an aircraft, its name is a blend of the word "goblin" and the name of a popular beer manufacturer that catered to the Royal Air Force. Name the creature and ID X.		<input type="checkbox"/>
11	The Kite-Eating Tree is a tree from a fictional universe. According to the creator, it was one of the 12 devices that gave the narratives a "steadiness, simplicity, universal appeal." Some other devices include Schoreder's piano, _____'s psychiatry booth, _____'s doghouse, and the unkicked football among others. ID the creation (no need to fill in the blanks).		<input type="checkbox"/>
12	The critic Andrea Long Chu recently described this poet-writer as the "caricature of a diasporic poet" in her review of his latest novel, The Emperor of Gladness . Name the poet , whose mixed-Vietnamese mother renamed him _____ after an incident with a customer who corrected her when she pronounced "beach" as "bitch" and suggested she use another word in its place.		<input type="checkbox"/>

13	Speaking of _____, Fran Lebowitz said, "She was immensely rich. The main thing that makes her a great writer is talent. But the privileges of her wealth is why we have this book, which is riveting." Which writer , nicknamed Pussy Jones by her family and praised for her critique of New York aristocrats from within, won the Pulitzer Prize in 1921.		<input type="checkbox"/>
14	In June, 1953 this Caribbean born literary giant graduated second in class from Oxford to which he said, "A bloody, damned, second", his only consolation was that the then professor of English language and literatures had called his Anglo-Saxon paper 'the best in the University'. Who? He went on to win, "that Swedish prize", as he put it, about fifty years later.		<input type="checkbox"/>
15	This Kannada playwright and all-round funny guy started off the literary journey of K V Iyer when he said, "Oh my! You are only into body-building, what about your brain?", after finding out K V had not read Oscar Wilde. Who?		<input type="checkbox"/>
16	In a 2025 article by Homegrown, Pari Pradhan, looks at the curious phenomenon of _____ as a cultural motif in diasporic writers from South Asia. Pointing out that "Sweet juice and sticky fingers in South Asian writing have become as cliched as roses are red, violets are blue". FITB.		<input type="checkbox"/>
17	At age eight, she was enrolled in school on the condition that she learn to read and write in six months. She exceeded expectations by starting to write only after a few days of schooling. Which writer who created history by achieving a first in 2025?		<input type="checkbox"/>
18	Written during the 19th century BCE, with a huge legacy through the ages, The Tale of Sinuhe is about Egyptian royal official Sinuhe, who while on an expedition to Libya, hears of the pharaoh's death and flees to Syria. He prospers there, raising a family, but ultimately wishes to return to Egypt. Name the author of the most notable version in our time- a 1942 short story, that suggests Sinuhe yearned to return home because of romantic love.		<input type="checkbox"/>
19	In Shakespeare's The Tempest, Prospero says this of Caliban: "A devil, a born devil on whose <WORD1> <WORD2> can never stick...". In the right order fill in WORD1 and WORD2 that are the two sides of a long-standing debate in biology and society, popularised by Francis Galton.		<input type="checkbox"/>
20	"It is an unintentionally ludicrous book, full of preposterous melodramatic incidents; it is also deeply moving and essentially true; it is hard to say which quality outweighs the other." According to George Orwell, which book published in two volumes in 1852 , "is the supreme example of the 'good bad' book"?		<input type="checkbox"/>
21	1848- The Haunted Man and the Ghost's Bargain. 1846-The Battle of Life. A Love Story. 1845- The Cricket on the Hearth. A Fairy Tale of Home. 1844- The Chimes: A Goblin Story of Some Bells that Rang an Old Year Out and a New Year In. What is the title for 1843?		<input type="checkbox"/>
22	Whose upcoming memoir , with its title taken from a line in the Beatles' song Let It Be , reflects the writer's complex and emotionally fraught relationship with her mom, whom she "ran from at 18," and whose death in 2022 left her "heart-smashed"?		<input type="checkbox"/>
23	Which theory with a 19-letter (4-15) hyphenated name links these prominent people: Henry James, Ralph Waldo Emerson, John Galsworthy, Benjamin Disraeli, Mark Twain, Walt Whitman, Charles Dickens, Charlie Chaplin, Orson Welles, Sigmund Freud, Daphne du Maurier, and Derek Jacobi among others?		<input type="checkbox"/>
24	Who gave a lecture in Association Hall Philadelphia on the 15th death anniversary of X, whom he regarded as "the commonest average of life" and "the greatest, best, most characteristic, artistic, moral personality" in American life?		<input type="checkbox"/>
25	The 2018 movie Iruvudellava Bittu , the 2023 two-parter Sapta Saagaradaache Ello , and the yet-to-be-released Yaava Mohana Murali Kareyitu all take their titles from the lines of a poem by which poet of the Navya movement?		<input type="checkbox"/>